ORD 2566-76

15 November 1976

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chairman Special Panel
THROUGH : Chief, Life Sciences Research Division, ORD
SUBJECT : Recommendation for Promotion
1. It is strongly recommended that to grade GS-05.	25 X 1
2. At present, is one of two secretaries in the Life Sciences Research Division, (GS-06 slot). This position demands accurate and varied secretarial skills as well as the ability to serve as Senior Division Secretary when the need arises.	25 X 1
J. Indo Decir & monder of the first services	25 X 1
to carry the entire LSR workload and train the new Senior Secretaries	25X1
when they reported to the Division. knowledge of her position is evident in the ease with which she executes routine tasks, her responsiveness to new challenges, and personal initiative in striving to produce professional and accurate results in any task assigned to her.	25 X 1
·	25 X 1
5. Additional evidence of interest in her work and individual initiative to increase her value to LSR and the Agency is	25 X 1
found in the fact that has enrolled in two evening classes at Northern Virginia Community College. She is taking English and Psychology, both of which should enhance her ability to provide professional support to the scientific personnel in LSR.	25 X 1

25X1

Approved For Release 2007/10/23 : CIA-RDP91-00452R000100100044-9

7. As a result of loyalty to the office and devotion to her work, I strongly feel that a promotion to the next highest grade level, GS-05, is well deserved.	25X1
	25X1
C/BRB/LSR/ORD/DD/S&T

Approved For Release 2007/10/23 : CIA-RDP91-00452R000100100044-9